conte de fées à l usage des moyennes personnes écrit en 1941 échappe simplement à la définition c est déjà du boris vian bien avant l ecume des jours l arrache coeur ou l herbe rouge il était une fois un prince beau comme le jour il vivait entre son chien et son cheval à l orée d un bois dans un château aux murs gris et au toit mauve boris vian is a rare phenomenon nothing short of a national treasure in france he is hardly known overseas in his lifetime he divided literary opinion with masterpieces that failed to sell and best sellers that caused outrage trials and even deaths including his own as an impresario he became the figurehead of the jazz scene that marked the french left bank at the end of the second world war and was responsible for bringing duke ellington and miles davis to france as a musician he played his trumpet against the advice of cardiologists sang pacifist songs before audiences of outraged patriots and in passing created french rock n roll posthumously he became known for his theatre film scripts and poetry as well as for his novels and in may 68 he became a revolutionary icon

it is a close study of four novels by boris vian it aims to show how l Écume des jours l automne à pékin l herbe rouge and l arrache coeur form a unified and coherent tetralogy by establishing close links between these four texts it becomes possible to achieve a more comprehensive understanding not only of the significance of the tetralogy in exposing a complex and multi layered novelistic strategy at the heart of the vianesque but of the individual novels as autonomous creations an examination of the novels reveals that they are not merely joined to one another via a superficial network of textual similarities that which i refer to as intratextuality but that this intertwining is emblematic of a common method of narrative construction each vian novel is dependent for a thorough understanding of the text to be possible upon the multiple lines of external influence running through it the sources of this influence which i refer to as intertextuality are located in various major texts of twentieth century literature anglophone as well as francophone thus in each instance the narrative is driven by a complicated interaction of intratextuality and intertextuality this book is a study of the novels of boris vian the artist writer jazz musician and occasional pornographer his work displays a bewildering variety of styles genres and narrative voices the purpose of this book is to show that vian s novels in fact display an overall thematic coherence dramatizing the growth of the individual from childhood to adolescent idealism and ultimate adult disillusion
